Senior Care Worker

What is a senior care worker?

Senior care workers work alongside care staff in delivering all aspects of personal care, but also have additional responsibilities such as administering medication, allocating tasks within the care team, and providing support and supervision to members of the team.

Do you have what it takes?

Excellent communication skills, both written and oral, are required to promote teamwork and deliver quality handovers for each shift. You will be the senior person on duty for intervals during the working day and will be required to offer support and guidance appropriate to the grade. Full training will be provided appropriate to the level of the post.

What's in it for you?

- Rewarding career
- Training opportunities
- Career progression opportunities
- Flexible hours
- Variety of locations
- Competitive pay
