

Introduction to Making Room For Dignity

Sally Longley
Engagement Specialist

Today's session

Today's session is about the Making Room for Dignity Programme, which is to provide new mental health inpatient facilities to eradicate dormitory-style accommodation, including the development of a local Psychiatric Intensive Care Unit to avoid out of county placements.

- Andy Harrison and Geoff Neild will be taking us through the Making Room for Dignity Programme
- An opportunity to ask questions and give any feedback

What will today's session influence?

- Feedback and comments from today's session will be fed into the system
- You can be kept up to date with information by accessing the engagement platform HERE

Instructions for today

Microsoft Teams Basic Functions

Control bar:

Click  to see a list of who else is on the call

Click  to open the chat box

Click  or  to raise your hand for the attention of the facilitator

Instructions for today

Microsoft Teams Basic Functions

Click to turn your camera on or off if there is a line like this it means it is off.

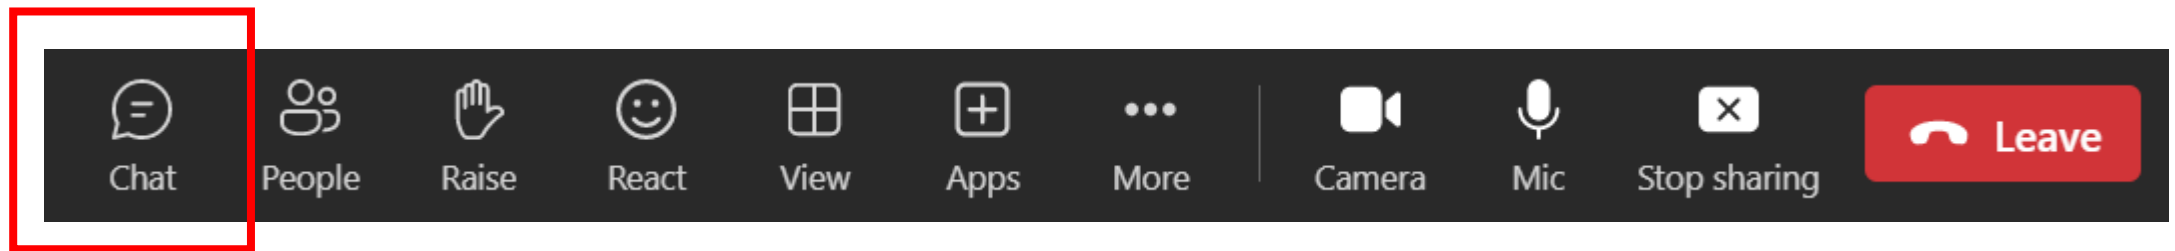

As always the session will be recorded and uploaded to our YouTube channel and to the engagement platform.

Click to turn your microphone on or off, if there is a line like this it means it is off.

Virtual Meeting House Rules

- So we can hear the person speaking you may be automatically muted. Please stay muted while others are speaking
- To ensure everyone's questions and views are captured we ask that you raise your questions in the chat box please:

- We want everyone to have a chance to contribute today

Virtual Meeting House Rules

- Please remember to:
 - Listen with an open mind
 - Respect each other's views
 - Try to keep in line with the agenda
 - If the point has already been raised please try not to repeat it

Contact Details

Name: Sally Longley

Title: Engagement Specialist

Email: Sally.Longley@nhs.net

Web: <https://joinedupcarederbyshire.co.uk>

